History of the event	National Girl Child Day was first initiated in 2008 The objective behind celebrating National Girl Child Day is to provide support and opportunities to the girls of India. As we know in India, gender inequality is one of the major issues that needs to be focused on and it exists in several areas including legal rights, education, medical care, marriage, etc. Female foeticide is another major issue that further affects the demographic problems in India. Smt.T.Sailaja, Dr. M. Usha Rani Spoken on this occasion. child marriage ,dowry and limited access to resources are the issues once girls have faced.
Significance of the event	. To spread awareness about the inequalities faced by girls in Indian society, and also to promote awareness about the rights of the girl child and the importance of female education, health, and nutrition. The day is in line with various campaigns and programs of the Indian government including Beti Bachao Beti Padhao and Save the Girl Child.
Outcomes of the event	Greater awareness of the value of girls' education, empowerment, and safety is a result of NGCD, which has helped to positively change public perceptions of females.
