Brief Report

The Department of Commerce of Government Degree College for Women, Sri Kalahasti conducted a Poster Presentation Activity on 10th October 2025 as part of the ongoing GST 2.0 Awareness Campaign. The event focused on the theme “Super GST and Super Savings,” encouraging students to depict the essence of GST reforms through creative and informative posters. Participants presented their ideas confidently, explaining the advantages of GST

	2.0 in simplifying taxation and promoting savings. Faculty members appreciated the students' efforts, creativity, and conceptual understanding. The event concluded successfully with positive feedback from both staff and students, marking another step toward enhancing practical learning and awareness under the GST 2.0 initiative
Outcomes of the event	○ Students showcased informative posters highlighting the key features and benefits of GST 2.0 reforms. ○ The activity improved their creativity, clarity, and ability to summarize complex ideas visually. ○ Participants gained confidence in presenting financial and taxation concepts in a simplified form. ○ The event created deeper awareness among students about the role of GST in promoting transparency and economic growth.
